Hymns Biographies:

#334—"Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine" Romans 8:37
"No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us." Composer Pheobe Palmer Knapp played a new melody for her blind hymn-writer friend. When asked what the music said, Fanny Crosby immediately replied, "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine". Rejoice as we sing those words today.

#555—"A Child of the King" Romans 8:17 "Now if we are children, then we are heirs - heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may also share in his glory". Hattie E. Buell wrote this poem in 1876. John Sumner had been praying for a Gospel song to write and felt that this poem answered his prayer. Sing these joyous words with conviction today.
