Hymns Biographies:

#572-"I Love to Tell the Story" Psalm 89:1 "I will sing of the LORD's great love forever; with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known through all generations". This hymn was written in 1866 by Katherine Hankey while recovering from a serious illness. Telling the story of Jesus is our highest calling. The words of this great hymn should give us hope and encouragement.

#307-"Just as I Am" Psalm 51:2 "Wash away all my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin." One of the most familiar invitational hymns that we sing was written by Charlotte Elliot in 1835. She became an invalid in her 20's and wrote this hymn as she was battling with chronic illness, depression, and spiritual doubt. We don't need to fix anything before coming to Jesus. He accepts us just as we are.

CHURCH FAMILY CARE OPPORTUNITY

We need at least 4 volunteers to sit with Gladys Powell, who is bedridden, so her husband, Butch, can attend Sunday School and worship services. You can help one time, on a rotating basis, or whenever you are available. Any amount of time would be a blessing.

If you can help or would like more information, contact Lydia Allen at [REDACTED] or lydiawallen67@gmail.com

Galatians 6:10 — "As we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers."
